BIGROCK NEWS

Snowy greetings!

This is a special day at Bigrock. The snowguns are set in place, the valves have been checked, the hoses unrolled -- snowmaking starts tonight at Bigrock!

All those snowdances and offerings to Ullr, the Norse snow god, are about to pay off. And it looks like Mother Nature will do her part, as the forecast is calling for the first significant snowstorm of the season on Wednesday!

The Bigrock crew has a little more giddy in their giddy-up today, as excitement and anticipation continues to build toward the start of the season.

And, we are especially stoked for this weekend's event: the BIG WINTER KICKOFF PARTY!

Bigrock has much to celebrate and to be thankful for, that's for sure, and we want you to help us jumpstart the season like never before. We'll rock out with live music, a cash bar and hors d'oeuvres, and fundraising activities. All proceeds will benefit the Aroostook Ski Patrol.

We will also be hosting a LAST CHANCE Early Bird Season Pass Sale. For one night only, you could save BIG on your Bigrock
